

beauty editor's choice

SARAH DREW JONES PICKS THE NEW SEASON LUST-HAVES

'Most eyeliner pens are just too Amy Winehouse for me, but this range is super-chic. Stand-out shade? Bronze, which looks incredible with every eye colour, and the mascara gives sleek, clean length, too'

Estee Lauder Double Wear Zero-Smudge Liquid Eyeliner and Mascara, £17 each

▶ 'If you like your cleansing routine to feel like you've just been dunked in a refreshing crystal-blue sea, then these are the ones for you' YSL Cleansing Milky Veil Radiance Revealer, Rinse-Off Foaming Creme, £19

◀ 'This is the type of scent that stays in your memory for years. A modern classic' Dior Midnight Poison Collector's Edition, £48

◀ 'With so much girly pink and violet around this spring, I'm striking out for cool blue, as seen on the catwalks at Chloe and Biba' Givenchy Vernis Please polish in Indigo Denim, £10.50 (01932 233 824)

'The natural valerian in this makes it brilliant as a stress-relieving soak' Clarins Relax Bath & Shower Concentrate, £14.50

'Packs a punch of exotic blooms' The Body Shop Aqua Lily Soap, £2.50.

▶ 'This sells out in seconds, whenever new stocks appear, so get yourself on a list. A skin smoothing phenomenon' Natura Bisse Inhibit Tensolift £460, www.panachecosmetics.com

'This vibrant eyeshadow is soft as a cloud and will instantly make your eyes pop. But beware: a little goes a very long way!' Barry M Dazzle Dust in Bright Blue, £4.50, Superdrug

